DETAILED ACTIONDouble Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 20-32 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 38,42-44,39, and 38 of U.S. Patent No. 6,660,040. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the difference between Claims 20-25 of the application and Claims 38,42-44,39, and 38 of the patent lies in the fact that the patent claims include many more elements and are thus much more specific. Thus the invention of Claims 38,42-44,39 and 38 is in effect a “species” of the “generic” invention of Claims 20-25. It has been held that the generic inventions is “anticipated” by the “species”. See In re Goodman, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993). Since Claims 20-25 are anticipated by Claims 38,42-44,39, and 38 of the patent, they are not patentably distinct from Claims 38,42-44,39, and 38.

Regarding Claims 26-32, the invention defined by the claims of U.S. Patent No. 6,660,040 lack the components being made from the different materials. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to select any of the claimed materials for the components of the prosthesis in the invention defined by the claims of U.S. Patent No. 6,660,040, since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design choice. In re Leshin, 125 USPQ 416.
